

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
OF NEW MEXICO

Barbara Andersen)
Plaintiff)	Case 20-cv- 00553
v.)
Forrest Fenn; Unknown Defendant)

SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Barbara Andersen, as her own attorney, hereby files this supplement to her previously filed motion for a protective order.

Andersen asks that this paragraph be considered in supplement to her motion for a protective order. Andersen already advised this Court in her last pleading that she has been harassed by “Fennatics” who are watching these proceedings because they have run out of materials for their YouTube programs which provide them financial benefit.¹ As predicted, Andersen’s last motion was picked yet again up by the Court watchers and, thereafter, by the Fennatics. Just within the last day, Andersen has yet again been publicly attacked on the blogs and on YouTube by the Fennatics. A copy of the recent blog initiated by this KPro² person (and joined in by layman Toby Younis of Gypsy Kiss) is attached hereto as Exhibit A and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of an e-mail correspondence that an anonymous harassing person sent Andersen is attached herein is Exhibit B and is incorporated herein by reference.³ Andersen asks this Court to consider same in supplement to her motion for a protective order.

² The blogging false tries to characterize KPro as acting reasonably relative to Andersen. Andersen (not vice versa) gave KPro her phone number on her youtube page. In addition, Andersen’s number is in the pleading and has been a matter of public record/information for 20 years. Notwithstanding same, KPro has elected not to interview Andersen but instead to continue on with her smear campaign.

Respectfully submitted:
